Why?

Because Preferred Marketing Group believes it is the role of the manufacturer's representative organization to work closely with the end-user customer to thoroughly understand and deal with the kitchen challenges that foodservice operation deals with daily.

Preferred Marketing has helped dozens of national and regional chain operators to do just this. Preferred Marketing performs time and motion studies and identifies bottlenecks; whether procedural or equipment based. Preferred Marketing Group has the culinary resources to test your product on various platforms in our culinary lab. We analyze, test and will present a formal deck. We make our facility available for you to confirm our findings and fine tune to your own "Gold Standard."

Preferred Marketing is more of a partner in our business then just a rep. They help provide resources that most companies our size would not normally have access to. Not only do they provide consultation on construction, kitchen design and R&D but they go the extra mile to help our locations and franchisees with fixing issues in the field quickly. Support for our system after the Sale is important to us and Preferred Marketing always goes the extra mile. We look forward to working with them for many years in the future. Bryan Vicentini President The Counter

Jeff, your Preferred Marketing team showed remarkable creativity and innovation in assisting us to achieve increased throughput in our kitchens with a smaller footprint, and reduced ticket times. We are very excited to continue working together.
